Thanksgiving Riddles for Kids

Name: _____ Riddles solved: _____ / 12

Easy

1. I am big, round and orange. I grow on a vine, and on Thanksgiving I end up inside a pie. What am I?

Answer: _____

2. I have lots of feathers and a red, wobbly chin, and I say "gobble, gobble". What am I?

Answer: _____

3. I drop from the tree in autumn. I can be red, yellow or brown, and I crunch when you jump in a pile of me. What am I?

Answer: _____

4. I am yellow, I grow in rows on a tall green plant, and you can eat me right off the cob. What am I?

Answer: _____

Medium

5. I am a Y-shaped bone. Two people pull me apart, and whoever gets the bigger piece makes a wish. What am I?

Answer: _____

6. I am brown and I pour. I am made from the roast's juices, and I love to sit on top of mashed potatoes. What am I?

Answer: _____

7. I get hotter and hotter, but I never get a fever. The turkey spends hours inside me. What am I?

Answer: _____

8. I am a month with eight letters, and Thanksgiving in the United States always happens inside me. What am I?

Answer: _____

Hard

9. I am a harvest grain. Take away my first letter and I become what an oven gives off. Take away one more and I become what everyone does at dinner. What am I?

Answer: _____

10. I am a three-letter dessert. Take away my last letter and I become a famous number from math class. What am I?

Answer: _____

11. Mix up the letters of STEW and you get one of the four directions on a compass. Which one?

Answer: _____

12. A pie is cut into 8 slices. Four cousins each eat 1 slice. Then Dad eats half of what is left. How many slices remain?

Answer: _____

Answers: 1. A pumpkin; 2. A turkey; 3. A leaf; 4. Corn; 5. The wishbone; 6. Gravy; 7. The oven; 8. November; 9. Wheat (heat, eat); 10. Pie (pi); 11. West; 12. 2

Original riddles by Puzzlekin. Free to print for home and classroom use. More at puzzlekin.com/printables/7-9